AYER'S

HERRY PECTORAL,

Diseases of the Throat and Lungs,
such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

obably never before in the whole history of medihas anything won so widely and so deeply upon nfidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of , and among most of the races of men it has risen er and higher in their estimation, as it has be-better known. Its uniform character and pow-cure the various affections of the lungs and , have made it known as a reliable protector st them. While adapted to milder forms of disand to young children, it is at the same time the effectual remedy that can be given for incipient umption, and the dangerous affections of the t and lungs. As a provision against sudden at-of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every y, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to sudden colds, all should be provided with this ane for them.

though settled Consumption is thought incurable, great numbers of cases where this disease seemed
, have been completely cured, and the patient ored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So plete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs throat, that the most obstinate of them, under Cherry Pectoral, soon subside and disappear.
gers and Public Speakers find great protection it.

ma is always relieved and often wholly cured nchitis generally cured by taking the Cherry ral in small and frequent doses.
generally are its virtues known that we need ublish the certificates of them here, or do more assure the public that its qualities are fully tained.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever

malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

its name implies, it does cure, and does not fail, ining neither Arsenic Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, y other mineral or poisonous substance what-it in no wise injures any patient. The number portance of its cures in the ague districts, is ly beyond account, and we believe without a el in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride tified by the acknowledgments we receive of the l cures effected in obstinate cases, and where remedies had wholly failed.
testimonials of persons, either resident in, or travel-

Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the

FOR YOUNG FOLKS AND THEIR PARENTS.

BY MRS. LINCOLN PHELPS.

CHAPTER V.—The Neighbors receive letters of very different import.

The restless spirit of Eugy Magoin could not long exist in a state of quiet; her letters to her parents were filled with complaints of the life they led. Every day the same "get up, dress, put our rooms in order, (a detestable duty in my opinion,) go to breakfast; then to prayers; then to study, and classes till dinner; then study hours again, tea, and study again, and go to bed,—the next day to go over the same hateful round of tasks." Thus did she write to her parents of her school life, and beg them, if they had any mercy upon her, to send her "a box of eatables, some novels, and money."

One day, as Col. Magoin was in his counting house, he received an unusually sad letter from his daughter, complaining of the hardships she endured, and asserting that her health was failing under such privations and confinement. The father's feelings were touched; he could not give his mind to business, but walked directly home, that he might consult with his wife as to the propriety of

FROM presents appearances the forthcoming monthly debt statement will make a very favorable showing notwithstanding the heavy payments of the Government during the current month. It is now thought the reduction will reach at least two millions.

GENERAL Canby recently distinctly declared to a brother of Governor Walker, of Virginia, his intention and purpose to enforce the test oath upon the members of the Legislature, saying Virginia could not be regarded as a State de facto until after her Senators are elected and admitted to their seats. He declined to say whether he would inaugurate the Goveror elect before Congress meets.

THE Republican County Convention, recognizing the eminent worth and fitness of Mr. SAMUEL HERBST for the office of County Treasurer, unanimously endorsed him, notwithstanding he had previously announced himself as an "independent" candidate. We understand that Mr. HERBST requested the publication of his card in the Compiler for the information of Democratic voters, offering to pay for it, but its insertion even as an advertisement was declined. Mr. HERBST has an established reputation for honesty and integrity, and will receive the votes of many Democrats, who will manage to learn of his candidacy before the election comes off.

GEN. ROSECRANS' declination of the Copperhead nomination in Ohio was promptly published; but his private letter to their State Committee has just come to light, in which we have the reasons that controlled him. He don't like the Pendleton green-back-repudiation platform adopted by the Convention, and the generally disloyal attitude of the party. Like a true soldier he insists upon maintaining the national faith untarnished, and thinks the Democracy are doomed to continued defeats, so long as they submit to the domination of fossile leaders and ignore the great lessons of the day. In other words, although a Democrat the General is'nt willing to train in the Copperhead ranks. The letter has produced a marked sensation in Ohio.

THE terms of the following United States Senators expire in 1871, and according to law the vacancies will have to be supplied this year in States where only biennial sessions of the Legislature are held: H. V. M. Miller, Georgia; Richard Yates, Illinois; James W. Grimes, Iowa; Edmund G. Ross, Kansas; Thomas C. McCreery, Kentucky; William P. Fessenden, Maine; Henry Wilson, Massachusetts; Jacob M. Howard, Michigan; Daniel S. Norton, Minnesota; John M. Thayer, Nebraska; Aaron H. Cragin, New Hampshire; Alexander G. Cattell, New Jersey; George H. Williams, Oregon; Henry B. Anthony, Rhode Island; Joseph S. Fowler, Tennessee; Waitman T. Willey, West Virginia—total, 16. It is probable most of the above will be re-elected.

THE "ring," which managed the Democratic County Convention, and slaughtered good men to make room for party hacks willing to obey the mandates of their masters, don't like the idea of Mr. SAMUEL WOLF consenting to be a candidate for Sheriff. It was exceeding unkind in Mr. WOLF thus to permit himself to be "forced" into a candidacy. Hadn't the "ring" fixed up the Sheriffalty and its perquisites for Mr. KLUNK; and what right has Mr. WOLF, or any body else, to interfere with their nicely arranged plans? Well, we are sorry, but advise the "ring" to be content with running Democratic County Conventions.—They and Mr. KLUNK may find more difficulty in successfully running the October election. The truth is that, besides the well-grounded dissatisfaction in the Democratic ranks over the doings of the Democratic Convention, there is a general conviction among men of all parties that the Sheriff's office should be administered by a man of integrity, courtesy, and heart—just such a man as Samuel Wolf has proved himself to be.

DR. DILL & INCREASE OF SALARY.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I have several times heard it charged that Dr. DILL, member of the Legislature, last winter favored an increase of the pay of members of the Legislature from $1,000 to $1,500—at least that he did not vote against the bill. When the salary was raised to $1,000 a few years ago, people thought it pretty steep pay for three months' work, with free railroad tickets and extras thrown in, and the privilege of going home on Saturday and returning on Monday or Tuesday. The proposition to put $500 more on the salary was a gross outrage, and every man who had anything to do with it should be marked by tax-payers. Can you tell how it was?

It is also said the Dr. favored the passage of a bill to increase the rate of interest to ten per cent. How is this?

CONOWAGO.

We have not a copy of the Legislative Record at hand, as Dr. DILL did not favor us in that line—whether because he didn't care to have his record closely scrutinized, we can't say. The facts, however, we believe to be as follows:—Mr. MILLER, a prominent Democratic member, introduced the proposition to increase the pay from $1,000 to $1,500, and warmly urged its adoption. After considerable discussion, it was defeated—yeas 28; nays 63; 9 members not voting. The yeas were made up of 16 Democrats and 12 Republicans; the nays of 17 Democrats and 46 Republicans. It will thus be seen that while the Democrats divided on the question, three-fourths of the Republicans voted nay.

Dr. DILL's name does not appear upon the record—why, he alone can tell. One of the tricks of legislative life is to abstain from voting, when a member wants a bill carried, but hasn't moral courage to face the music by putting his name on record. Members indulging in this kind of game are known as "dodgers." There were apparently nine "dodgers" on this occasion, and Dr. DILL has the honor of being one of them. He was probably willing to take the $1,500, but didn't like to say so in black and white. We recollect very well that when the news of this "dodging" reached Gettysburg, the Dr. was pretty loudly denounced on our streets by prominent Democrats, who thought his failure to vote on the bill an outrage calling for popular rebuke. If the Dr. isn't satisfied with $1,000, he had better take a back seat, and give way to better men who will care more for the interests of tax-payers than their own pockets.

As to the bill to increase the rate of interest in Pennsylvania, we believe it was killed by being indefinitely postponed, and that Dr. DILL voted with the friends of the bill against postponing. Most of people think that 6 per cent. is high enough interest for poor men to pay on borrowed money. The Dr. evidently thinks differently. It is a hard business to be born poor—worse still to be compelled to go in debt—but we don't believe it should be treated as a crime, or that additional facilities should be granted rapacious moneylenders to take advantage of other people's misfortunes.

"THE Soldier-Governor, who bases his claims for re-election on services which he pretends to have rendered the country on bloody battle-fields, trips his heavy fantastic toes over the bones of his dead comrades, and then, with an air of the most brazen effrontery, appeals to the living soldiers to give him another term in the Gubernatorial chair, on the score of his affection for the men who fought and bled and died for their country."—Valley Spirit.

It may gratify the Valley Spirit, to be informed that Gov. GEARY was not present at the Ball given on Wednesday night at the Springs Hotel, and had nothing to do with it. The Governor came to Gettysburg on Tuesday, spent the day in conference with his old comrades in arms, left the Hotel early on Wednesday morning, and on Wednesday night was far on his way to Danville, to assist in the laying of a corner stone of the new Lunatic Asylum. The fact is, that the arrangements for the Ball were consummated by some of the officers stopping at the Hotel on Wednesday, after Gov. Geary had left, who had his name inserted on the list of Managers without consultation with him and without his knowledge. Whether the Ball under the circumstances was proper or not, Gov. GEARY had no more to do with it than the editors of the Valley Spirit.

THE Lycoming Gazette—the oldest Democratic paper in Northern Pennsylvania—is not entirely satisfied with the proceedings of their late State Convention, and thinks the Democracy are bound to lose as long as they cling to dead issues and submit to the domination of its fossil leaders, whose thoughts never rise higher than the interminable "nigger." In a recent issue the Gazette thus discourses on the present status of the party:

We live in a progressive age, and political issues arise and are settled speedily.—The great civil war brought about many changes—the status of one race of people was entirely changed by an arbitrament of the sword—old political issues are now dead and buried—to attempt to revive them is the sheerest folly.

The great trouble with the Democracy, and one of the principal causes of their repeated defeats, is leading their candidates down with old issues. This ruined McClellen and Seymour. There is no disguising this fact.

In the nomination of Judge Packer for Governor we would have preferred a more liberal platform—one that did not rake up old issues—but accepted the situation plainly and squarely. We regard the suffrage question as settled; to fight it out now is like putting your head against a stone wall or attempting to dam up Niagara. The Democracy must cultivate more liberal and enlarged political ideas if they ever expect to regain entirely the prestige they have lost.

[Communicated.

EDITORS OF STAR AND SENTINEL:—It is currently reported in this neighborhood that the present County Commissioners, with their Clerk, as well as ex-Commissioners, met in Gettysburg on the day of the Democratic Convention, actively at work to defeat the nomination of Mr. FELTY. It looks suspicious, to say the least. Mr. Felty, as every body knows, is an independent honest man, of sharp business tact. Why this combination to keep him out of the Commissioners office? Were they afraid he might learn something about the way in which things are administered in that office? We would like to have some light on the subject.

STRABAN.

We have heard the statement referred to by our correspondent frequently made, but not being in the secrets of the "ring" can give no light on the matter. It is admitted on all hands that Mr. FELTY's defeat was brought about by a combination between the friends of SWOPE and NEDICH to kill off BECK and FELTY—and in this they may have been materially aided by the active interference of parties whose interest it was to keep a man of FELTY's capacity and nerve out of the Commissioner's office.

THE Pennsylvania and Ohio Democrats have both failed in their efforts to secure a respectable soldier to run for them for Governor. Hancock declined the Pennsylvania nomination in advance, and Rosecrans said he wouldn't stand it as soon as he learned of his nomination, giving the Democracy of Ohio some plain advice about disloyalty and repudiation. The Democratic party ignored the brave soldier during the war and now the tables are turned.

A new cable is projected between Ireland and America.

THE RECENT RE-UNION

of officers of the Army of the Potomac, under the auspices of the Battle-field Memorial Association, has been variously commented on by the Press, mostly approvingly, with cavil and cheery a growl.—The Copperhead Press generally find fault with the entire programme and accept Lee's suggestion that every thing connected with the Rebellion should be ignored and forgotten. The loyal Press, on the other hand, cordially endorse the efforts of the Association to mark, with enduring memorials, the ebb and tide of the great conflict between Freedom and Slavery, which culminated at Gettysburg, and for three long days raged around our hills. There have been one or two exceptions. The New York Tribune was unfortunate enough to have a correspondent on the ground, who must have fared badly during his visit, and vents his spleen upon everybody and everything in a dreary two column letter, remarkable only for utter want of truthfulness, good breeding, and common sense. He complains of having been "swindled" and being made the "dupe of a tavern dodge," in coming to Gettysburg only to "witness a little gathering of military dead-heads," "local State officers" of no reputation. Indeed everything seems to have gone wrong with him. He finds fault with the "cohort of speculators" who have been "preying on the reputation" of the battle-field—complains of our "German village," with its "stolid population," "third-rate taverns," and "watering place hotel of the second class," the "conventional" Soldiers' Monument, and the National Cemetery so resembling "a landscape garden." Indeed, according to this scolding, fault-finding chronicler, the Battle-field itself is a humbug, and It is deserving the fuss made over it. Neither Meade nor Lee displayed any genius in the fight. It was "one of the worst battles ever planned, in point of scientific attack; or defense," a mere struggle between "two desperate prize fighters of the heavy weight," who agreed to give and take "punishment," without "one remarkable movement inspired in any general of either side." It was a battle of mistakes and accidents, "the fabric of successful defence" being founded simply on a series of "interlinking mistakes." Meade, Reynolds, Sickles, Howard, Hancock, Sedgwick, Slocum, Sykes, Geary, Wadsworth, Chamberlin and the brave men who, we innocently thought, had linked their names to immortality by the lustre of their deeds on the field of Gettysburg, will have to look well to their laurels, now that this astute and candid military critic has taken them in hand. Who and what he is, does not appear from his letter, as, with the modesty common to all great men, he carefully withholds his name. If not mistaken in our guesses he is the same chap who indicted the article signed "A Southerner," which appeared in the STAR AND SENTINEL of Aug. 13, wherein this same struggle was written down as "a battle of giants," fought under the direction of "giant Intellects,"—wherein the purposes of the Battle-field Memorial Association in marking out and preserving its salient points, were chronicled as deserving the highest commendation of the American people—and wherein the hope was expressed that the leaders of the Rebel army would dignify the proposed Re-Union with their presence, and aid in the laudable effort to preserve for coming ages enduring memorials of the great struggle. A marked change seems to have come over this correspondent in the twelve days intervng between Aug. 13 and Aug. 25. Either the officers of the Association must have failed to "wine and dine" the Tribune man to full capacity of his stomach; or he is of the genuine Bohemian stamp, writing according to his pay.

The Mauch Chunk Gazette, published at Packer's home, thus disposes of the nice little story about Packer's equipping a regiment of soldiers during the war, which has been going the rounds of the Democratic press:

"Somebody has started the report that our worthy townsman from the Democracy would take away from us and transfer to the insalubrious atmosphere of Harrisburg) raised and equipped a regiment of soldiers during the war—Union soldiers, we suppose, is meant; the report does not say which. But we are able, on the best authority, to brand this story as a base slander, concocted to injure him with that class of voters who were in the habit of denouncing their opponents for the Union as 'Lincoln hirelings,' &c. Not a person here in Mauch Chunk, his apparent residence, would have the hardihood to charge that Judge Packer ever equipped or recruited a single soldier during the late war. The nearest approach to it was his well-known offer on behalf of the Lehigh Valley Railroad to its employees —who might volunteer to defend its and Judge Packer's property from the rebel raiders."

THE report that General Sickles was authorized to present a proposition to the Spanish Government providing for the abolition of slavery in the Island of Cuba, her representation in the Cortes and recognition of the insurgents, is denied by the President and Secretary Fish. Minister Sickles is instructed, it is said, to negotiate with the Spanish Government for the freedom of Cuba, the Cubans to pay for the Spanish forts, public buildings, &c.

AN election was held in California on Wednesday for members of the Legislature and county officers. The Democrats are opposing Chinese labor and the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment, and as they have carried the State for two years past, except at the Presidential election, they have probably elected a majority of the members of the new Legislature. Up to the hour of going to press we are without any report of the result.

THE statement published of the public debt of the United States on the first of September, 1869, shows a decrease of the debt during the month of August of $5,604,234.79. The decrease since March 1, 1869, has been $49,500,758.51. This is most creditable to the present Republican Administration.

FOUR disastrous conflagrations, causing an aggregate loss of over half a million of dollars, occurred throughout the country on Tuesday. Earle's picture gallery, in Chestnut street, Philadelphia, was burned down and the magnificent collection of paintings suffered great injury. The Continental Hotel was in great danger, but fortunately was saved. One fireman was killed.—Whilst these buildings were in flames a stable and carriage house in the same city was destroyed by fire and thirty-nine horses and a number of carriages burned up, the loss being $80,000. Cape May was also the scene of a widespread conflagration, which originated in a store, spread to an adjoining hotel, and before the flames were extinguished three blocks of buildings were consumed. The United States and Atlantic Hotels, the Postoffice, a former hotel building and a number of cottages, were swept away by the fire, which only ceased its ravages when it reached the beach. The loss is set down at $175,000. The railroad depot at Quincy, Illinois, was burned on Monday night, and with it about thirty cars, the damage reaching $100,000.

POLITICAL ITEMS.

VERMONT holds her State election on Tuesday next.

GOVERNOR FAIRCHILD, of Wisconsin, has been nominated for re-election by the Republicans of that State.

CHIEF JUSTICE CHASE has written to a gentleman in St. Louis that he is "out of all future political contests."

JUDGE PACKER spent the war summers among the rebel sympathizers in Europe—Geary among the rebels in the South.

THE Democrats of Massachusetts have nominated John Quincy Adams, for Governor.

TEN cents make one dime, ten dimes make one dollar, ten dollars make one eagle, ten thousand eagles made one Democratic nomination.

LANCASTER county Republicans have nominated E. Billingsfelt, and John Warfel for the Senate, and A. C. Reinoehl, Godshalk, Wiley and Hunsicker for the House.

PACKER handed over to the Democratic State Committee a first instalment of $100,000 for campaign purposes, last week. He will have to raise his stake several times within the next six weeks to be elected.

MR. PACKER'S residence is in Mauch Chunk, except when the Assessor or Collector is about—then it is in Philadelphia. How small it looks to see this "blocted" millionaire dodging about to escape the payment of his share of the public taxes.

A PACK of electioneering conundrums for the Pennsylvania latitude is thus epitomized by an exchange:—How did the Democratic candidate begin life? As a Packer. When did he do his first packing? When he packed his first carpet-bag and packed off from Connecticut to Pennsylvania. When was his latest packing done? When he packed the Harrisburg convention.

AT a Republican meeting in Nashville on Saturday resolutions were adopted calling upon Governor Senter to convene the old or expiring Legislature for the purpose of ratifying the Fifteenth Amendment. A memorial to the people and Congress was also adopted, in which it is claimed that stupendous frauds were perpetrated in the late canvass, protesting against the validity of the election, and denouncing it as revolutionary.

AN exchange paper thus epitomizes the Democratic party: "Pledged to oppose Chinamen in California and negroes in Ohio, but affiliating with them both in Virginia and Tennessee; supporting repudiation in Ohio and Kentucky, and compelled to oppose it in New York and Pennsylvania; denouncing military usurpation in Texas, but having a Governor to uphold in New York for taking military possession of a railroad—the Democratic managers have a heavy and inharmonious load to carry."

IN New York, where the Democrats have entire control, they give the country a specimen of the way they administer public affairs. New York is the worst governed city in the world. The tax payers are robbed by the millions to fill the pockets of Democratic office holders and thieves. In the single item of street scavenging, they have the job so arranged that the yearly profits are $85,200, to be divided among the ring. Whenever the party requires a million or so for any purpose, some job is set on foot, and the money rung from the people by taxation.

GENERAL CLARKE, of Texas, is in Washington, and says the complexion of the political parties in that State are pretty much as they were in Virginia and Tennessee. A. J. Hamilton is the candidate of the Conservatives for Congress, and will receive a greater portion of the Democratic vote, the exception being those extreme old Southerners who believe in the perpetuity of the Southern Confederacy, and who may present a separate candidate. Davis is the candidate of the Republicans, and will probably command the mass of the colored vote.

THE election in Maine, which is to take place next month, is drawing near, yet the campaign is very dull, though the contest is between three candidates. A few Republicans, in whose estimation Gen. Chamberlain was too lukewarm a temperance man, have nominated a separate ticket, and will poll just enough votes to show them how foolish they have been, without defeating the regular Republican nominees. In some counties they are running the anti capital punishment hobby, thinking it a more taking issue than the vindication of the State constabulary system. The prospects of Republicanism, in spite of this defection, are bright in Maine.

WHEN the Democratic delegates were returning from Harrisburg to Philadelphia, after nominating Packer for Governor, a gang of them made an unprovoked assault upon a gentleman connected with the Pennsylvania Railroad. They forced themselves in a car in which were ladies, knocked him down, and would have killed him outright, had not a commanding voice arisen above the noise of the wheels of the cars and the wild yells of ruffians: "What yer 'bout ther. Stop that! Don't yer know that Packer's only nominated! He's not 'lected yet. Yer haint forgot Jerry Eaton, have yer? Geary's Gov'ner yet, and will hang every one of yer! Wait till Packer's elected, and then you can pitch in!"

THE welcome rain came at last on Saturday night, and is reported to have extended over a considerable section of country. Our State exchanges speak of the continuation of the drought during the past week and of the burnt condition of the crops, but it is hoped that the showers of Saturday night may to some extent effect their salvation.

On Saturday night last, Mrs. O'Connor, residing near Baltimore, undertook to fill a lamp with inflammable oil, when the lamp exploded, setting fire to the room and burning Mrs. O'Connor so badly that she died soon after. One of the children was badly burned, as was also Mr. O'Connor, who went to his wife's assistance. Another warning against the careless use of burning fluids.

NEAR Bucyrus, a few days ago, while W. Kalb was at work in the field, he felt an impulse to go to the house, and on passing through the yard he thought he heard a faint cry for help come from the well. He looked in, but saw nothing; just as he turned to leave, a neighbor, who accidentally came by, was attracted by a similar cry, and also looked into the well, where he saw Mr. Kalb's little grand-daughter, only six years old, clinging to the wall, supported by a small stick. It seems that, playing near the well, she had dropped a plaything in, and trying to reach it with a rake, had fallen in herself. She was taken out from the water, which was fifteen feet deep.

AN idea of the inability of Spain to much longer carry on her present war for the subjugation of Cuba, may be formed from her financial exhibit for the current year. The interest on the national debt is $32,000,000, while the other national expenditures are set down $117,000,000; making a total of $149,000,000. On the other hands the estimated revenues are only $107,000,000, leaving a certain deficiency of $42,000,000, which may possibly be still larger, even without further outlay in Cuba. Borrowing is out of the question. The last loan yielded only thirty to forty cents on the dollar, and that was taken by Spaniards rather as a matter of patriotic devotion than with any expectation of return. This resource cannot be counted on a second time, and in the present chaotic state of the country help from foreign capitalists will be slow in forthcoming.

THE INTERNATIONAL BOAT RACE.

LONDON, Aug. 27.—The excitement today over the great international boat race has been intense. The banks of the Thames have been lined with spectators since an early hour this morning. The city has been almost deserted, and business quite neglected. Vehicles of all descriptions, bearing the Harvard and Oxford colors, and heavily laden with people, crowded all the roads leading to the course, and during the entire day the roads in the vicinity of Putney, Hammersmith, Chiswick, Barnes, Mortlake, &c., were thronged with pedestrians. The railway companies found themselves unable to provide cars sufficient to carry the vast numbers in waiting at the depots. It is no exaggeration to state that probably a million people witnessed the race.

The American crew went into the race under some disadvantages—want of familiarity with the tortuous nature of the river, requiring a special boat instead of the one they were accustomed to row in at home; the carrying of a coxswain, which is unknown in American rowing, but without which the Oxfords refused to row; and besides Simmons and Loring, of the Harvard crew, were not well, Simmons suffering from diarrhea.

The Harvard crew won the toss for position, and chose the Middlesex side (the subside of the semi-circle.) Both boats started at 5 o'clock 14 minutes 6½ seconds. The tide at the start was sluggish, and a light southwest breeze prevailed, with smooth water. The Harvards were the first to catch the water, and took the lead, gaining rapidly on their opponents, and making forty-five strokes per minute, against the Oxfords' forty. At Bishop's Creek—three furlongs from the start—the Harvards led half a length. Gaining headway, they increased their lead as they passed the Willows. Their pace was subsequently slackened, and the Oxfords pulled up, but the Harvards were three-quarters of a length ahead at Craven Point—three-quarters of a mile from the start. Oxford now went on with a steady drag, but the Americans rapidly increased their lead, and at Crab Tree, a mile and an eighth from the acqueduct, were a couple of lengths ahead. Beyond this point the Harvards were taken wide, and the Oxfords quickened their speed, reduced the gap at the soap-works, a mile and a half from the start, to half a length. The Harvards, now pulled up with a magnificent burst to Hammersmith Bridge, a mile and three-quarters, but in shooting the bridge lost the distance they had gained. Opposite the middle wall the Oxfords spurted, and came up gradually to the Harvards, but when opposite the Dones the boats were found to be too close together, and the Harvards gave way; and at Chiswick Arch, two and a half miles, the boats were level. After proceeding fifty yards further, the Oxfords began to gain, though temporarily, and the Harvards again got even with them.

The Oxfords gained rapidly at Chiswick, where it became clear that the pace apparently told on the Harvards, who were rather wild at this part of the race. From this point the Oxfords rapidly drew ahead, and in a few strokes obtained a lead of two lengths. The Harvards, rowing pluckily, held them there for a half mile, when they fell astern, and Oxford, at thirty-eight strokes per minute, shot Barnes bridge—three and five-eighth miles—three lengths ahead. Along Barnes Reach the Harvards refreshed their stroke, Mr. Loring, with river water, thereby retarding their boat. The Americans then tried to spurt, but found the effort ineffectual, and the Oxfords, getting the lead, eventually won the race by one and a half lengths, easing up in the last few strokes and pulling up fresh. The Oxfords arrived at the ship at 5 o'clock, 36 minutes 47 seconds; making the 4¼ miles in 22 minutes 40½ seconds. The Americans were well received at the finish, and, returning, landed at Barnes. The race was a good one, and excited a degree of enthusiasm along the banks of the river utterly unknown in former races.

The Harvards were much complimented for their pluck, and both crews subsequently dined together. The friends of Harvard have entire confidence in their capacity to beat Oxford in a match on American waters, and it is possible a match may be made for next year to be rowed in New England.

The wonderful effects effected by Brandreth's Pills, have arrested the attention of enlightened physicians. Upwards of five thousand now use them in their daily practice, and two hundred have given their written testimony as to their innocence and value, as cleansers of the bowels and blood.

Their antiseptic power is to those living in settlements where doctors can only be had at great expense. For if you are sick, you have only to take one or more doses of Brandreth's Pills to get cured. Full Directions are with each box.

PEARS.—We tender our acknowledgements to Mr. Wm. Funt, for a basket of fine Pears.

☞ A bridge across Little Marsh creek, near John Cover's, was granted by the Grand Jury, at August term.

CHANGE.—There was a decided change in the temperature on Monday, the mercury going down to 50,° and making coal fires a luxury. The weather continues cool.

RETURNING.—The trains during the last few days have brought a large number of Students, to resume their collegiate studies. We notice a number of new students on the ground.

ELECTED.—We notice a statement in the Philadelphia papers that Prof. STOEVER, of this place, has been elected Professor of Latin in Muhlenburg College. Prof. S. occupies the same chair in Pennsylvania College, and we presume does not contemplate a change.

HORSE THIEVES.—Adams and surrounding counties, Cumberland, York, Franklin, Carroll, Washington and Frederick, are just now infested by horse-thieves, and it is probable that an organized band is at work, from the boldness of their operations. Farmers will do well to keep watch over their stock.

OPENED.—The Public Schools opened on Wednesday, with a full corps of teachers. Mrs. Wert having resigned as teacher of school No. 4, Miss Maria Thompson was elected in her stead.

W. R. Eyster, Esq., has been appointed a Director, instead of J. F. McCreary, resigned.

RAILROAD CHANGE.—The Winter Schedule went into effect on the leading Railroads on Monday last, which will require a corresponding change in the schedule of the Gettysburg Railroad. The morning train will leave at 9 A. M., instead of 8.15, and the afternoon train at 2 P. M., instead of 1.45. The trains will arrive at Gettysburg at 12.55 and 5.50.

CELEBRATION.—The Oak Ridge Union Sunday School will hold a celebration on Saturday, the 18th of September in Jacob B. Miller's Grove, near Wierman's Mill. A number of able speakers are expected to be present. A cordial invitation is extended to neighboring Schools and all favorable to Sabbath Schools. The Gettysburg Brass Band will be present.

BURGLARIES.—On Wednesday night, the 18th ult., the dwelling of Gideon Baugher and Henry Eppleman, in Menallen township, were entered by burglars. About $12 were taken from the pocket of Mr. Baugher's pants, hanging near his bed, while he was asleep—the thief leaving without exciting an alarm. At Mr. Eppleman's he was less successful, Mrs. E. awaking just as he entered the bed room, and her efforts to awake her husband inducing the thief to decamp immediately. It is supposed an entrance was effected in both cases by false keys

COMPLIMENTARY.—The West Branch Bulletin, published at Williamsport, Pa., thus refers to the new proprietor of the "Gettysburg Springs Hotel:"

We can assure the people of Gettysburg that Mr. Hoppes "knows how to keep a hotel" and is one of the best landlords ever known in this part of the country. We congratulate the company of their acquisition and Mr. Hoppes on his securing so distinguished a locality for the display of his peculiar abilities.

We understand that it is Mr. HOPPES' intention to keep the Hotel open during the entire year, for the accommodation of boarders and guests. The rates have been reduced to $15 per week for boarders—transient guests $3 per day.

FIRE.—The dwelling of Amos Williams, (colored,) on the long lane in the rear of the colored church, in this place, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday evening last. It was a new 1½ story building, erected last spring. Williams is an industrious, worthy man, of limited means, and the loss will be severely felt. The house had been locked up all day, Williams and his wife being at work in town, and the origin of the fire is a mystery. It was discovered about five o'clock. Williams and wife lost all their clothing except what they had on their person. A portion of the furniture was saved by neighbors.

A SUPERIOR PEN.—We are indebted to our friend and former townsman, Mr. KELLER KURTZ—now the senior member of the firm of KURTZ and MONAGHAN, of New York—noted for the excellence of the Gold Pens turned out by them—for the present of a new Pen, manufactured by them, intended to meet the wants of those who object to metallic pens. It is made of gutta percha, tipped with gold and diamond point, fashioned after the quill pen, and possesses the flexibility of quill pens. It is unquestionably a superior article, and will doubtless command a heavy sale. It is warranted for six months, and sells at a reasonable price. Sold in Gettysburg by A. D. BUEHLER. We advise all who prefer the quill to metallic pens to try this new article.

J. N.—The "immortal J. N." paid us visit last week, and seems to be more fully impressed than ever with the importance of the conflict between truth and error, and his mission in connection with it. He thinks the cause is making progress, all the prominent Railroad Kings having been brought under the pressure already, as "J. N." carries with him innumerable free Passes authenticated by these magnates, whereby he travels where he pleases. He writes us from Harrisburg announcing his intention to return to these parts the last of the month, and will speak in New Oxford on Saturday night Sep. 25, and in Gettysburg on Wednesday the 29th during the Agricultural Fair. J. N. also writes in cordial acknowledgement of the kindness shown him by Messrs. Georg W. and J. H. MCCLELLAN, during his several trips to Gettysburg, who, he says, have "stood by him in the darkest days when the veil of prejudice overwhelmed him."

CAMP MEETING.—The colored Camp-meeting, in Wolf's Grove, closed on Monday morning. The attendance on Sunday morning and evening was very large, a special train being run from Hanover, besides frequent trains from Gettysburg.—The preachers in charge were partially disappointed in not receiving promised assistance from abroad, in consequence of camp-meetings in progress at the same time at other places. The preaching, however, during the week, was creditable, and the best order was maintained on the ground, notwithstanding the large crowds in attendance. It is due to Mr. JAMES ROUSER, who had been employed as police officer, to say that the good order was largely due to his unremitting efforts and excellent tact. Mingled courtesy and firmness had the effect to repress all disposition to violate the rules or produce disorder.

On Sunday afternoon, we understand, Gen. GREGORY, of the Freedmen's Bureau, and Bishop JONES addressed the camp—the former on the condition of the colored people in the South and the operations of the Bureau under his charge—the latter in a politico-religious discussion of God's dealing with the nation in the solution of the problem of Human Slavery.

A POPULATION INSTITUTION.—The splendid success of the Iron City College has made its name a household word throughout the land. Students attend it from all parts of the Union. For Circulars, giving full particulars, address the Principals, Smith & Cowley, Pittsburgh, Pa. It AGRICULTURAL FAIR.—In to-day's issue will be found the schedule of Premiums to be awarded at the next meeting of the Adams County Agricultural Fair, with the rules and regulations to be observed in the entry of articles. The Premiums offered are liberal and cover the whole range of products. The Fair will be held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the 28th, 29th and 30th of September. The grounds will be opened on Monday the 27th for the reception of articles and and animals for exhibition. No entry for competition will be made after Tuesday. Trusty persons will be employed by the Society to receive articles, assign them places, and properly guard the grounds. The Gettysburg Railroad will furnish transportation for articles and animals free of charge. JOHN F. FELTY, Esq., has been appointed Chief Marshal, and will be charged with the duty of enforcing the rules and regulations.

As the period between this and the time fixed for the Fair is brief, it is to be hoped that Housekeepers, Farmers, and all interested in the improvement and development of our agricultural interests, will go to work promptly and vigorously in the preparation of articles for exhibition, and thus heartily second the energetic efforts of the officers to make the Fair a credit to the county.

The ladies, both in town and county, can do much towards making an attractive display, by sending in specimens of housewifery, needle work, jellies, preserves, &c. This department has been an interesting feature in the last two exhibitions and there is no reason why it should not be largely increased this year.

HOW TO KEEP POOR.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

There is no man who would not rejoice to have the way pointed out by which he might honestly attain riches.—But no one would thank me for a prescription to insure poverty, and yet there is many a man who keeps himself poor by indulging in the following:—Two glasses of ale a day at ten cents, seventy three dollars; three cigars, one after each meal, one hundred and nine dollars and fifty cents; board for a big dog, thirty dollars—all in one year, making two hundred and twelve dollars and fifty cents sufficient to buy six barrels of flour, one barrel of sugar, one sack of coffee, a good suit of clothing, a respectable dress, a frock for the baby, a half dozen pairs of shoes, and meat and wood for the year. If you don't believe it, figure for yourself. No doubt there are other useless indulgencies that are not enumerated here, that could be dispensed with to the saving of another hundred dollars. Look at it ye who indulge in these useless things. It will be to the joy and comfort of yourself and family.

IMPROVED MORNING GLORY.—The famous Morning Glory Stove, so popular as a parlor and office stove, has sometimes been objected to for use in chambers and by families needing but one fire, because not adapted to heat water, &c. This difficulty has been overcome, and last Monday we saw one of the improved Morning Glories in operation at the Warehouse of Col. C. H. BUEHLER, on Carlisle street, which seems not only to obviate objections but to meet every desired want. It is nothing more or less than the ordinary Morning Glory, with an Oven about 15 inches in diameter attached, and ingeniously arranged dampers by which the heat can be thrown around the oven at pleasure, and making it as hot as the ovens of the best cooking stoves. Water can be boiled, pies baked, and even meat roasted as readily as in a cooking stove. This contrivance, while preserving all the qualities of the Morning Glory as a heater, adapts it for the sick chamber, or use in small families requiring but little cooking. tf

CAUTION.—Extended success in any department of business justly awakens competition, and owing to defective mental and moral structure, often begets envy. Now these are to be expected and may be met with energy and determination; but not unfrequently the bounds of legitimate rivalries are overstepped, and base, unscrupulous men stoop to use the pernicious age of others to further their nefarious purposes. With the assistance of science, and by means of industry and honesty in providing a potent remedy, Dr. Stever's Old Standard Tonic Herb Bitters have attained unparalleled celebrity, having been before the public for the last thirty years.

Wherever they have entered the sick or complaining household, their effects have even exceeded expectation, and so far surpassed all we have ever claimed for them by circular, card, or otherwise, that the public confidence in the medical qualities of the Bitters is unbounded. We do not fear the competition of the empirical throng who attempt to palm off remedies upon the people, which are not scientifically compounded, and are destitute of available qualities. Their empiricism will be discovered in the end, and the inefficiency of their preparations found out. We would rather be envied for merited success than despised for failure, however ungenerous it may be for man either to envy or despise. Against another and a worse class of individuals, we are forced to take action. We allude to those who take advantage of our popularity, and attempt to gain public favor and confidence by counterfeiting the Old Standard Bitters, barely imitating the label, or making other approaches to its preparation calculated to deceive, and as a matter of course, in so far as they succeed, to bring our excellent Tonic into disrepute. The public are hereby warned against all such imitations. In order to further protect ourselves, and save the afflicted from imposition, we have concluded to change our Label so as ever hereafter to sustain our indentity, and keep the reputation of the Old Standard intact. We incur great expense by so doing, but the end warrants the means. The new label along with the caption, directions and neat ornamentation, will present an excellent steel portrait of C. H. Kryder, the senior member of the firm. This will be the badge of its genuineness, as well as a guarantee of the quality of the Bitters. The label will be duly copyrighted, and thus placed beyond the reach of counterfeiters. By no fault of ours shall the public confidence ever be abused or the reputation of the "Old Standard" be allowed to suffer. None genuine unless signed.

PRETTY WOMEN.—A comparatively few Ladies monopolize the Beauty as well as the attention of Society. This ought not to be so, but it is; and will be while men are foolish, and single out pretty faces for companions.

This can all be changed by using Hagan's Magnolia Balm, which gives the Bloom of Youth and a refined sparkling Beauty to the Complexion, pleasing, powerful and natural.

No Lady need complain of a red, tanned, freckled or rustic Complexion, who will invest 75 cents in Hagan's Magnolia Balm. Its effects are truly wonderful.

Skinner, of Chambersburg; Prothonotary, Geo. W. Welsh, of Waynesboro'; Register and Recorder, Hiram T. Snyder, of Fayetteville; Clerk of the Courts, B. A. Cormany, of Chambersburg; Treasurer, William Reber, of Southampton; Commissioner, Jacob Brumbaugh, of Antrim; Director of the Poor, Frederick Long, of Concord; Auditor, John C. Trible, of Hamilton.—On Tuesday night last, we learn that a fine black mare was stolen from a field on the farm of Abraham Solenberger, in Green township, and subsequently recovered near Leitersburg, where the thief had sold him.

FREDERICK.—Anthony McBride, of Emmittsburg District, met with a serious accident on Saturday last, while on his way from Frederick to his home. It seems that the vehicle in which Mr. McBride was riding gave way and precipitated him to the ground, breaking his leg in two places.—On the 25th ult., a game of Base Ball was played in Emmittsburg between the "Alpines," of that place, and the "Leather Legs," of Franklin county, the former winning by a score of 67 runs to 40 for the latter; Finley Hoke, of Gettysburg, acted as empire.

A CONVENIENCE.—We understand that arrangements have been made to establish a Baggage Depot in this place which will be under the charge of responsible parties. Passengers arriving in the trains can leave their checks at the Ticket office, and their baggage will be delivered wherever ordered. Persons intending to leave in the cars can have their baggage called for at their residences and delivered at the depot. tf

It is reported that the real proposition made by this Government, with reference to the purchase of Cuba by the patriots, and rejected by the Spanish authorities was: That the United States agreed to act as a kind of trustee, pledged to retain enough of the revenue from customs, as an indirect guarantee to Spain for the island if sold. It is now stated that Minister Sickles will submit a new proposition, in substance as follows: Cubans to have the rights of Spanish citizens and of representation in the Cortes, amnesty to those engaged in the insurrection, and the suppression of slavery in Cuba with protection to the freedmen. Should Spain accept this poposition, it is stated this Government will try to have peace on the island.

HOW TO MAKE MUSH.—One of the earliest literary productions of this country that attracted attention, was the poem by Joel Barlow, entitled "The Hasty Pudding." In it he sings the praises of this New England dish, and takes exceptions to its being called mush, sasap, or any name except the one our fathers gave. Mush, or hasty pudding as he would have us call it, is an American dish, and until lately, has never been met with over the water. But, notwithstanding the fact of its antiquity, its wonderful cheapness and its undisputed excellence, very few people know how to make this dish as it should be. The ingredients for a dish of mush are water, salt and corn meal. The water should be soft, and the salt fine, and the meal of the first quality; yellow meal gives the best color, whites meal is more easily cooked. The water should be boiling hot at the commencement, middle and end of the operation.—The meal should be added very slowly, so as to prevent lumps being formed, the cook stirring all the time, and should never be in such quantities as would bring down the temperature of the water below the boiling point. Herein lies the secret of making good mush. The reason that it requires a high degree of heat to cook Indian corn, is that the starch globules are very hard and compact, and require more heat to expand them than the starch particles contained in rice. Mush should be thoroughly cooked. —Prairie Farmer.

DRILLING WHEAT.—The season approaching for seeding down to wheat, we would urge the benefit of drilling in the seed with a machine, instead of a broadcast sowing. Nothing in agricultural practice, sow-a-days, may be said to be better established than this, as every one knows who has ever tried it; and the reports last season in the Department at Washington, from all sections of the country, showed the gain in bushels per acre to be in some sections 20 and 25 per cent. with the drilled wheat. It is found to be much less liable to be thrown out by frosts or winter killed, and the free action of the atmosphere through the drills in the field, the uniform depth at which it is covered, causing an evenness in the growth, together with at least one peck less seed being required for sowing; are all advantages which belong to drilling, connected also with securing a better taking of the grass seed.

Drills, as with other farm machinery, have been greatly improved the last few years, and are now constructed not only to sow wheat, oats, rye, &c., in given quantities, but also to sow with it grass seed and fertilizers in the rows, with the grain; so that the soil being previously well prepared, the whole is finished at one operation, and the ground left in nice, smooth condition. The ridges left by the drill are levelled down by the frosts of winter, giving additional protection to the tender roots of the grain and grass.—Practical Farmer.

RESTORING SPOILED MEAT.—Seeing that you publish receipts for house-keepers, I have concluded to give you a bit of my experience.

Some six years ago I went to keeping house, and being in a country town, I bought three net porkers, which I had cut up and salted down in a large packing-box. They were the first I ever salted, and I made a failure in the process—did not salt heavy enough—and in about two weeks my wife cut a piece of the meat, and came to me with the very grave remark that "our meat had spoiled." I examined it, and it smelt offensive. We could not eat it. Not being disposed to lose so much if it could be avoided, I went to a tinner and bought 2½ bushels of charcoal (I knew something of chemistry), which I mixed with a suitable quantity of salt—I don't remember the actual quantity, but it was nearly a half peck, more or less—which I put into a mortar and reduced to a powder. I took my meat out and spread a good layer of this powder into the bottom of my box and then a layer of meat. Each layer of meat was in a layer of coal dust, with the interstices closely packed with it.

Some four or five weeks afterwards I took the meat out and hung it up in the smoke house and smoked it well.

My neighbors, who ate the meat, asked me how I came to have so much better bacon than other people. I told them my secret, and I must say myself that I have never tasted better in my life. The hams were superior to the far famed sugar-cured.

Hoping this may be of use to young housekeepers I give it freely.

BUILDING HAY MOWS.—On small farms, where the horse fork is not used, much hard labor may be saved by building up one-half of the hay-mow at a time. For instance, with the first hay drawn, fill either the right or left-hand end of the bay, up as far as the big beam, then rake down the side, and while this part is settling, fill the other half. The two parts being filled at different times, will not settle alike, and of course will not unite, so there will be no use for a hay knife in winter. The principal benefit of this plan is derived by lessening the hard labor while unloading. One-half of the mow being lower than the other, the top of the load may be thrown on the highest part, and the balance below saves pitching from the rack over the big beam. After trying this mode of mowing away hay, it will not be abandoned.

There is still another advantage; the greatest heat caused by fermentation is always in the centre of the mow, and the seam here gives escape to the generated gas.

There is very generally a neglect among farmers to properly prepare the bottom of their bays for hay to keep well. In most cases the hay is allowed to lie upon the ground, or at best to rest upon a few poles or rails laid on the earth. The best construction we ever used was to put in logs fifteen inches through, across the bay, once in eight or ten feet, and upon these spread rails or poles, leaving a space between them of about two inches. This gives a free circulation below the mow, and not a pound is injured if it remains three or four year.—Ohio Farmer.

SETTING OUT STRAWBERRY BEDS.—Strawberry plants can now be set out from the middle of August to the end of September. It is true August is generally a very warm and very dry month, but in case of the absence of rain, the newly-planted beds must be watered every day or two until they become established. The bed should not be in a damp situation or the soil heavy. Dig deep, pulverise finely, and apply a pretty heavy dose of good barnyard manure. Let the divisions be about three and a half feet in width and as long as may be desirable. Set the plants about eighteen inches apart, insert them in the ground firmly but not deeply, and then keep clear of all grass and weeds. As to the varieties, we would choose for our own planting the following: "Triumph," "Russell," and "Hovey," and if we wished another, Jucunda. They should be planted in this wise in making up a full bed, with half a dozen or a dozen divisions: 1 Triumph, 2 Jucunda, 3 Hovey, 4 Russell. In this way a fine crop is assured with as much certainty as anything can be. The last of November protect the plants with a light covering of straw the first year; after that, if needed, light manure may be substituted as a covering. A half crop may be expected the first season. A mulch of straw cut two or three inches long will keep the ground moist and cool, which this berry likes, and smother the weeds. This should be applied the first of April. An application of spent tan is also excellent.—Exchange.

THE WORLD,

DODGES' OHIO AND BUCKEYE

Reapers and Mowers.

A careful examination of these machines will commence any one of their superior merits over all others, in strength, durability, ease of draft, and reliability for work, on all kinds of ground, and in every variety of grass and grain. Confident of this we invite those in want of a good machine to examine for themselves before purchasing elsewhere.

These machines can be sold as Naked Mowers—REAPERS as Hand Rake, Self-Rake, or Dropper—Two different sizes: No. 1 Machine, with two cutter Bars and three Knives, cutting five and a half feet inf grain and four feet eight inches in grass: No. 2, cutting four feet six inches.

We have that confidence in these machines that we are willing to let those wanting a machine test them with any other they may wish, and keep the one that gives most satisfaction. DODGES' AUTUMAN SELF-RAKE has given such general satisfaction that we consider it the best Self-Raker out, and is attached to no other machine except the Dodge Machine, the Ohio and Buckeye patent.

For the benefit of those wanting machines we would refer them to a few of those to whom we have sold the last season, viz:

John Isaacdorf, Sen.,	Henry Culp,
Ephraim Lady,	Henry King,
George Lady,	Elisha Penrose,
Jonathan Wisler,	David Stewart

STILL AHEAD!

HOFFHEINS'

REAPER & MOWER,

One of the Greatest Machines of the Age,

IS superior to any other Machine now in use, as it will excel any that will ever be introduced, having been thoroughly tried and given General satisfaction. I would now inform all those who intend purchasing Machines to call and examine for themselves. This Machine is noted particularly to excel all other machines in strength, durability, ease of draft, and reliability of work, in all kinds of grass and grain. It cuts long and grain admirably, which is a great item in Machines to a farmer. It can be used as a hand rake as well as a self-raker. It cuts 5 feet 2 inches in grain; 4 feet 10 inches in grass; has a steel cutter bar, with wrought iron guards; it can be used as a Single Mower as well as a Combined Machine.

A full text of the Machine can be had on hand.

Also SHIREMAN'S SELF-DISCHARGING HORSE RAKE, and the great and well known BRANT RAKE, the best rakes ever introduced. We would also call your attention to the IRON DOUBLE SHOVEL PLOUGH, wrought iron frame, very light and strong; steel shovels, easily adjusted to run shallow or deep, and is neatly and tastefully made.

ALSO, THE KREIDER AND EXCELSIOR FANNING MILL, the old standborough fan improved, for many years a great favorite among the farmers of Pennsylvania. It is large and strong, has two cockscrews, and warranted to work perfectly.

Also all kinds of FARMING IMPLEMENTS always on hand.

Any person wishing to examine these machines can see them at the Battle-field Hotel or at my residence, 3 miles from Gettysburg, between the Taneytown road and the Baltimore pike. LEWIS A. BUSHMAN.

GEISER'S PATENT SELF-REGULATING

GRAIN SEPARATOR,

CLEANER AND BAGGER,

With the latest improved Triple-geared Horse Power, either Gear or Belt.

This machine has successfully competed with all the best of the different patented Grain Separators, and now has the reputation of being the best Separator ever produced; in fact, the only Separator and Cleaner ever before the public to give general satisfaction.

The machine is conveniently arranged for hauling and threshing, being permanently fixed on two wheels. One man can easily move or shift it about, so that it is not half the trouble on a barn floor as a common thresher and shaker. It is also easily put in operation. It is simple, easily managed, reliable, durable, compact and cleanly to work by while in operation, not making near the dust as the common machine or other Separators.

Farmers can rest assured that this machine is no humbug, and judging from the high recommendation of farmers that have used them we must come to the conclusion that it is the very machine that farmers want.

The following are a few of the persons who have used this machine, well known, and to whom the public are referred for further information:

Wm. J. Peters, Flora Dale, Adams co., Penna.
Wm. Kohler, near New Oxford,	" "
John Plowts, near Gettysburg	" "

John Waltman, McSherrystown	" "
